UNIQUE LETTER

What a Maysville Lady Evolved From the Titles of Songs

The following unique letter is the production of one of this city's brightest and smartest East End young ladies.

The loving epistle is formed by arranging the title of popular songs in such a manner as to give expression to a love-sick maiden's thoughts—

"To One I Love," "Sweet William," "I Have Been Thinking of You All the While" (for) "I Have a Longing in My Heart For You," "When Summer Comes Again," "Meet Me in St. Louis, Louie," "Down on the Farm," "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree" (or) "Under the Anheuser Busch," "Where the Cotton Blossoms Bloom" (and) "Take Me Back, Back, Back to Baltimore," "Coax Me," "Sweetheart Mine," (and) "I'll Wed You in the Golden Summer Time" "On a Sunday Afternoon," "Come Take a Trip in My Airship" (and) "I'll Leave My Happy Home For You," (for) "I Have No Sweetheart But You," (and) "You're as Welcome as the Flowers in May," "Keep a Little Cozy Corner in Your Heart For Me" (for) "Every Little Bit Helps" (so) "Please Go Way and Let Me Sleep" (for) "I Was Only Teasing You," "That's a Good Sign" (and) "Don't Forget the One That Loves You" (so) "Won't You Fondle Me?" "I Kissed You in a Dream Last Night" "When Nobody Was Lookin' But the Owl an' Moon," "Get Busy," "You Look So Good to Me," "Paint Me a Picture of Mamma," "Sing Me to Sleep," "Treat Me Nice" (and) "I'll Be Your Tootsey Wootsey" "In Sweet September," "Maybe" "I'll Be With You When the Roses Bloom Again" (for) "Absence Makes the Heart Grow Fonder" (so) "How Would You Like to Spoon With Me?" "Promise That You'll Be True" (to your) "Blue Bell" (and) "I'll Love You Anyway Until I Die," "I'm Wearing My Heart Away For You," "I Love You Dear and Only You," "I Am Feeling Fine," "In the House of Too Much Trouble" (where) "My Sweetheart," "Navajo" (is) "Waiting for My Coming Day by Day," (Now) "Little Boy Blue," "Perhaps" "When Hope Has Faded" "Call Me Back" (and) "I'll Say Good Night, Beloved," "Wear a White Rose If You Love Me," (As ever yours.) "BEDELIA."

PLAYING PARACHUTE

Small Boy Came Near Meeting Death Under Horse's Hoofs

Elwood Maddox, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Maddox of East Second street, Fifth Ward, came near being trampled to death yesterday at noon under the hoofs of a horse.

He had a small parasol, and got onto the frame of the water-trough at Second and Commerce and jumped off with the parasol raised, saying he was playing parachute.

The instrument rolled in front of a horse that was going by and he ran out and was in the act of grabbing it.

The horse became frightened and reared up on its hind legs, and when it came down one of its hoofs struck the boy on his leg, severely bruising it.

It was a narrow escape for the lad.

The Democrats are asserting that "all the panics in this country have occurred under Republican auspices and with the highest Protective Tariff." This is enough to make a cigar store Indian smile. It may fool some of the young folks; but to the fellows who went through the panic of 1857-8, when JAMES BUCHANAN was at the head of affairs, when the whole machine was Democratic, and when paper money was at a discount of from 5 to 75%, while the Government was discounting Treasury Loans in Wall street 12 1/2%, it will be regarded, to put it mildly, as a 24-karat campaign lie.

I PICKED up a Cincinnati paper a day or so since and read this—

"Labor Demand Exceeds Supply.—Local employment offices are having a heavy demand for laborers this fall, and it is impossible to get men. There has never been a time in the history of the city when so many applications for laboring men have been made. Representatives from over a dozen states have been in the city during the past week trying to secure help for railroad and construction work in all branches."

A reward of $48 will be paid to any one who will produce a copy of any old paper, printed anywhere in the United States, that contains a similar "demand for labor" during the existence of any Democratic Free Trade Administration and Congress—from JEFFERSON to CLEVELAND. The way to continue this demand is to continue the Republican policy of Protection to American Industry, and the way to continue that is to vote for Republicans for Congress.

PENNSYLVANIA, which doesn't tax the money, the machinery or the merchandise of her citizens, has just dedicated a brand-new $13,000,000 Capitol; and she has the money to pay for it. It would not be altogether a bad idea if Kentucky would adopt the plans of the business-like Pennsylvanians.

THE HON. LESLIE M. SHAW, Secretary of the Treasury, who is to speak at Washington Opera-house in this city next Monday afternoon, has the sledge-hammer habit. In a recent speech in Indiana he delivered this "blow that almost killed father" BRYAN—

"I notice that Colonel BRYAN, in common with most other Democratic speakers, charges the Republican party with responsibility for the existence of trusts and monopolies of every character.

"If he means by this that the desire to monopolize industries is more prevalent under Republican than under Democratic Administrations, I am disposed to think the charge is true, for I have noticed that whenever the Republican party is in power, if there be two transfer companies in a given town, one will try to buy the other out so as to have exclusive control of the business. I have also noticed that the man who owns eighty acres of land when the Republican party is in power will attempt to buy, and will usually succeed in buying, eighty acres more, thus taking a step toward monopolization of the surface of the earth.

"I have also noticed that when the Democratic party is in power the man who has exclusive control of the transfer business in a town will try to sell at least a half interest and will prefer to sell all; and he who owns 160 acres of land will sell at least 80 acres—or the Sheriff will sell it for him.

"I know of no such disseminator of wealth as Democratic supremacy. It is not unlikely that Democratic control of the country would result, as it did in the nineties, in breaking nearly every trust and combination, as well as most private enterprises."

Waggsby—Once there was an Orangeman at a Hibernian picnic.

TO THE PUBLIC!

I am a little bit puzzled this morning about writing this advertisement, as I know so much that will be of PARTICULAR INTEREST TO YOU. Will state I have a great many splendid pieces of property located in the city of Maysville that I am quite desirous to dispose of. I also have a number of good farms located in Kentucky and Ohio which I am offering at very reasonable figures.

There was never a BETTER time to buy property than just at the present, for the reason that you can get long payments and a very low rate of interest.

Wishing to get your minds in the PROPER CHANNEL for real estate investments I have decided to have a Combination Sale on Wednesday, October 24th, and have some good music and other attractive features. Previous sales of this character have proven quite successful. I am expecting this one to be a much greater success.

Look about you, if you please, and review the real estate situation in Maysville. If you are candid you are bound to admit that things have improved wonderfully in the past three and a half years. Whether this is due to improved conditions or to an active agitation of real estate matters is left for you to judge. No one can successfully dispute the fact that more property has changed hands in Maysville and more farms in Mason county during that period than in the fifteen years previous. Some persons are generous enough to attribute this activity in a large measure to the efforts of your HUMBLE SERVANT.

Asking that you contribute all in your power to assist me in future efforts for larger results, and requesting your presence and encouragement at the Combination Sale Wednesday, October 24th, I remain,

Yours for MORE SALES,

The congregation is requested to attend the Sabbath-school Institute to be held at the First Presbyterian Church tomorrow and Monday.

In its notes of the Tots, The Lexington Herald says: "Chan Jefferson, former Sheriff of Mason county, was one of the many representatives of the Ohio Valley to attend the Tots. Mr. Jefferson has come to Lexington to attend the Tots annually for fifteen years and will be remembered as one of the backers of Oakland Baron when that good son of Baron Wilkes won the Kentucky Futurity in 1895. Oakland Baron received his 'prep' for this big event on the mile course at Maysville. He was trained by W. W. Milam, who had been an intimate friend of Mr. Jefferson for years. Mr. Jefferson took the tip from Mr. Milam and returned to Mason county better fixed financially after the race than he was when he came to Lexington to see the race pulled off."

"MY WIFE'S FAMILY."
One of the cleverest musical farce comedies ever seen on a local stage will furnish the entertainment at the Washington Theater Wednesday, October 10th, when Stephens and Linton's "My Wife's Family" will be the attraction. It is a play that affords unlimited amusement from the opening act to the final laughable situation. The main situations hinge on the mother-in-law theme, and deal with the attempts of a festive young husband, Jack Gay, to dislodge his unwelcome relative from his home. The cast is one of the best ever seen presenting musical comedy. Seats on sale Monday morning at Ray's.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will issue within the next two or three days regulations governing the manufacture, sale and use of denatured alcohol under the act passed at the last session of Congress.

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

Most men of our city have little thought of the object of The Young Men's Christian Association. They simply see it as an organization in a city seeking aid, but fail to see in it an opportunity to aid in making better manhood.

The Association means opportunity, if it means anything. It doesn't mean charity, as is sometimes supposed, giving away benefits or selling them cheap. Opportunity in this case is a chance to grow and help in giving the other fellow a chance. Growth doesn't just happen. It is a product of effort, opportunity improved, in other words.

Now, the ideas of men when they think of growth differ. The Association has a pretty high ideal. It believes that manhood, or character, or whatever you call it, in order to be worth while, must take into account a man's relations to others as well as himself, and sets for him an unselfish rather than a selfish standard of life.

Body, brain, soul—they all make the measure of the man God intended; culture of them all is good and necessary; and the Association wants to hold before men the opportunity for a free development of this combination.

That's the Association's ideal, its object, but it can only provide the opportunity. Character comes from the inside, is a product of a man's own activity, can't be given him by someone else. The man himself must act.

Governor Beckham is to speak at Brooksville at 1:30 p. m. October 10th and at Augusta at 7:30 p. m. the same day.

John Besse, aged 16, of Covington, yesterday ran in front of a streetcar on the Cincinnati Suspension Bridge, and was crushed to death.

The First Ward has one distinction and that is it is Cosmopolitan in its citizenship. An observing citizen the other evening noted the fact that of seven boys seated on the curbstone indulging in a song that the singers were descendants of seven different tribes of people—Irish, German, Italian, Jew, Greek, Negro and American.

Yesterday afternoon Wilson Warder, one of the C. and O. yard crew, in a friendly tussle with young Owens, fireman on the engine, received a badly sprained knee. He was conveyed to his home in Sutton street, where the limb received proper treatment from a physician. His injury was very painful and is of a character that will probably disable him for many weeks.

TWENTY GALL-STONES

Removed From Mrs. J. T. Strode in Operation at Lexington

An interesting and dangerous operation was performed Tuesday at St. Joseph's Hospital, Lexington, by Drs. A. H. Barkley of Lexington and Ricketts of Cincinnati, assisted by Dr. J. T. Strode.

Mrs. J. T. Strode, the wife of Dr. Strode, formerly of this city, had been suffering for some time from gall-stones.

After a consultation it was decided that an operation was necessary, which resulted in twenty stones of a large size being removed.

The operation is the more remarkable because of the age of the patient, who is now 63 years old.

The fact that the stones were so numerous, notwithstanding their size, caused a great deal of surprise to the attending physicians, who say that the case is a remarkable one and is one whose outcome will be watched with interest.

The last reports from Mrs. Strode's bedside were to the effect that she was doing well and her physicians are hopeful of her complete recovery.

The largest area of coal lands in the United States, 98,000 square miles, is that of the interior West, which covers nearly half of Missouri, extends North into Iowa, South into Arkansas, Indiana Territory and Texas, and West into Kansas and Nebraska. What is called the central coal field, 47,000 square miles, is in Illinois, Indiana and Western Kentucky.

River News

Gage marks 8.7 and rising.

There has been a rise in the river all the way to Cairo, the result of heavy rains.

The Cincinnati-Pittsburgh packets made trips few and far between the past season.

The Ranger, going up the river with seventeen empties, will tie up at Middleport.

It is estimated 1,000,000 passengers took in the excursions in the Pittsburgh vicinity the past season.

A certain party of young ladies and gentlemen down the river made twenty successive Sunday excursion trips on the Cincinnati packets during the past excursion season.

The City of Cincinnati, running in the Cincinnati-Louisville trade, has been running now nearly nineteen months without missing a single trip on account of ice, low water or any delays on account of her machinery, making 150 miles a day. She has run 85,500 miles without a hitch of any kind nor hurt a single passenger or crew, and it is estimated in that period she has carried no less than 200,000 passengers.

MAYSVILLE, KY.

Correspondence
SPRINGDALE.

Mr. Greenwood Fry was here on business Friday.

Mrs. Alice Kiser of California, Ky., left for home Friday, after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Henry Windley.

The gloomy atmospheric condition of the past two weeks very fittingly represents the cloud of sorrow that has settled over so many of our homes because of the reaping of "the flowers that grow between."

Mrs. W. S. Tully, who has been suffering for several weeks with inflammation in one of her eyes, went to Cincinnati Thursday for special treatment. She was accompanied by her physician, Dr. Winder, and her son, Mr. S. B. Tully.

A peculiarity attending the many fatal cases of throat trouble in our vicinity is that the patients seem to be recovering—the throat heals and appetite returns, with less acute suffering, hope revives in the hearts of sorrowing parents, when without warning a sinking spell comes on and the life of the dear one is gone.

A little son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Trumbo died Thursday from the effects of diphtheria. He was thought to be recovering—been getting better for two days,—when he suddenly swooned and expired. This is the second son taken from this home. Two little daughters are left to the heart-broken parents, who are tendered the deepest sympathy of the entire community.

Miss Iva Soyester and Miss Minnie Wolf, two of Springdale's 400, left for the Georgetown Fair Thursday morning. Mr. John Soyester—sly old boy—boarded the same train at Maysville with a smile that was peculiar, and as the sequel shows with malice aforethought. John was decked out with a brand new suit, Prince Albert, &c. The Fair is a secondary matter. Who cares for the Fair? He and Miss Wolf were made one upon their arrival at Georgetown, returning on the 6 p. m. train same day. Congratulations.

E. C. Henderson is putting in a glass front and otherwise improving his business horse at Cottageville.

While various counties and towns are voting on the question of local option, how would it do for Lewis and Mason, Vanceburg and Maysville to fall in line?

It is claimed that the present term of the Lewis Circuit Court is the best that the county has had since Judge Cole was on the Bench. It seems as though we have a Judge who does things. The county is in need of three other things in order to make it the best—better roads, another newspaper and a reduction of salaries of county officials.

Your Scribe is in receipt of a formal invitation to attend a fashionable wedding reception on Walnut Hills, Cincinnati. The prospective groom is Prof. William Vosmer, a music teacher and piano tuner of Covington, and the prospective bride is Miss Mary Phelan, one of the most charming and accomplished young ladies of the Queen City. Both are refined, highly respected and move in the best circle, and are of good and well-to-do families. The wedding will be solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Phelan, 2992 Gilbert avenue, Wednesday, October 17th, 1906, at 4 p. m. and the reception will be from 5 to 9. The bride and groom will then take the 11 o'clock boat for Maysville and after viewing that fair little city they will come to Boggs, where they will spend their honeymoon. We extend congratulations and best wishes to the young couple in their matrimonial venture and trust that their journey in life may be a pleasant one, strewn with flowers and sunshine.

The disarmament of the rebel forces in Cuba is proceeding satisfactorily. Cubans are beginning to discuss the future form of government of the island, and there is a strong sentiment in favor of annexation to the United States.

The quarterly reports of State Banks, now being sent in to the Secretary of State, show, in a number of instances, that institutions are loaning out more than 30% of deposits, which the banking laws of the state expressly prohibit. The penalty is a fine of from $50 to $500 for each offense. The matter is merely overlooked by the banker in a number of instances, and the Banks hasten to set themselves right upon notice from the Department, as an indictment against one of them for loaning money over the amount fixed of deposit might cause a run on the Bank which would prove disastrous.

must win upon their merits. The International Dictionary has won a greater distinction upon its merits and is in more general use than any other work of its kind in the English language.

A. H. Sayce, LL.D., D.D., of Oxford University, England, has recently said of it: "It is indeed a marvelous work; it is difficult to conceive of a dictionary more exhaustive and complete. Everything is in it—not only what we might expect to find in such a work, but also what few of us would ever have thought of looking for."

A supplement to the new edition has brought it fully up to date. I have been looking through the latter with a feeling of astonishment at its completeness, and the amount of labor that has been put into it.

TWICE-TOLD TESTIMONY.

Maysville People Are Doing All They Can for Fellow Sufferers.

Maysville testimony has been published to prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills to others in Maysville who suffer from bad backs and kidney ills. Lest any sufferer doubt that the cures made by Doan's Kidney Pills are thorough and lasting, we produce confirmed proof—statements from Maysville people saying that the cures they told of years ago were permanent. Here's a Maysville case:

George N. Crawford, blacksmith and wheelwright, at Second and Lee streets, and living at 216 East Lee street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"In the spring of 1900 I gave a testimonial telling what Doan's Kidney Pills had done for me, and I am pleased to say I can just as warmly recommend this remedy now as I did then. No other medicine ever gave me such prompt and positive relief from backache and kidney trouble as Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at J. James Wood & Son's drugstore, and I believe them to be by far the best remedy for kidney trouble. Sufferers from such trouble ought to give it a trial."
